Update on South American Seminary

The Evangelical Seminary of Caracas, Venezuela is prospering under the blessings of God!

The seminary the Lord led us to start five (5) years ago, and the follow-on of graduates is more than we could have believed – Wow! We have become fully accredited.

We now have Chaplains in the Department of Defense, the two (2) major hospitals, and we have started a hospice – the only one ever in Venezuela! Four (4) acres of land and the start of a fine building have been given to us for the Hospice.

The plan for financing South American work has been to try to support it through designated offerings, as people find it in their hearts. Our first priority will always be CFGC!

The former Secretary to President Hugo Chavez graduated in December 2004 with a three-year MDiv. Her husband is now into his second year after retiring as a 4-Star General and Chairman of the Joint Chiefs! We led him to the Lord and into the Baptism three years ago. I asked these two dynamic people what their plans were and they replied, "We believe God wants us to serve Him by seeing that the Seminary is strong and well as long as we live! PTL!"

Following is a reprint of the text of a letter written by our Director, Jim Ammerman, to the Armed Forces Chaplains Board with copies to the Chiefs and Deputy Chiefs of the Army, Navy and Air Force:

Gentlemen:

I have always/only sought for, worked for, a 'level field' of service.

In addressing pluralism today, I believe we should/must be inclusive at all times! My approach has been, and still is, that we should be inclusive! If we had it where all chaplains could, at all times and places, pray according to his/her faith – that would be INCLUSIVE!

To have prayers outside of chapels only to be generic denies pluralism/inclusiveness! It means praying to an unnamed god (unknown god?). Saint Paul faced this on Mars Hill.

Isn't it time in America that we are mature enough to let each and all be who/what we indeed are? To do otherwise is non-exclusive and non-pluralistic, right?
